Passing of An Oldtimer

John Stewart is at rest.

After an illness extending over a period of twenty years, John L. Stewart, eldest son of the late Elizabeth Martin, pioneer resident of Carmel, passed away last Friday morning at the Monterey Peninsula Hospital.

For ten years or more, owing to the fact that he was almost continuously bedridden, he mingled but little in the community, but by the old timers he was loved and respected.

The funeral, which was private, took place on Saturday.

Deceased is survived by a sister Mrs. Isabel Leidig, two brother, Andrew and Joseph Stewart, and five half brothers, Robert, Carmel, Roy, William and James Martin.

Theatre News Notes

The Western Drama Society has disbanded, and in doing so, urges all its members to affiliate with the new Forest Theatre organization. The property of the W. D. S will be sold to satisfy outstanding debts

At a meeting of the directors of the Forest Theatre it was decided that the funds now in the treasury of the Forest Theatre Society be devoted entirely to the improvement of the theatre property.

At this meeting also the agreement of purchase of the theatre property from the Carmel Development Company was ratified.

There will be a meeting of the directors tonight at Miss Morgan's studio to receive the report of the Play Committee.

County Clerk T. P. Joy journeyed to San Francisco last Friday for medical treatment for an old ailment. We hope to see him on the job in good health soon.

As there was not a quorum of the city trustees on hand on March 9, consideration of the proposition to improve Ninth, Eleventh and Twelfth avenues will probably come up at the regular meeting on April 6.

Now is the Accepted Time

To Build. Carmel is growing. Its streets are being improved. People are coming here from everywhere to make their homes. They must find ample accommodations, or go elsewhere.

Put a house on that vacant lot of yours. It will bring you a satisfactory income.

Boosts and Knocks

By Observer

A man came to Carmel. While his powerful Packard was being repaired, he used a little Metz. "It felt like chasing jackrabbits after a lion hunt in India," he said.

Our City Trustees were offered a German cannon, through the efforts of Senator E. S. Rigdon, but refused it. How could they consistently accept it after returning the Harrison fountain.

That sharp turn on the Highway near Fourth Avenue was the scene of a second accident last week. The first time it was a bakery wagon. This time a milk wagon turned over. A "Go Slow" sign should be placed there. Food wagon drivers may regard it.

I know people in Detroit who go to baseball games only to see Ty Cobb, and people who go to the Manzanita movies only to see Fatty Arbuckle. I hope "Fat" has not been canned from here.

It is not so easy to write this column week in and week out, so if you have a good story, a boost, or a legitimate knock send it to me, in care of the Pine Cone.

More indictments by the Carmel Grand Jury:

Failure of Ocean Avenue property owners to start something toward putting that street in decent shape.

Unwarranted knocking of neighbors, and questioning of motives.

Giving work to outside building contractors when local men are willing and competent to do the work.

There's a genial old gentleman in the Bank of Monterey. His name is Henry. When you shake hands with him you must realize that you are meeting the father-in-law of a possible President. He's the father of Mrs. Herbert Hoover.

The local study class in Christian Americanization, much interested in this subject, will meet at the Askew home on San Carlos avenue at 3 p.m. next Wednesday to hear reports on this work going on throughout the United States. All interested may attend.

For President
HIRAM W. JOHNSON

Political Paragraphs

The signs of the times point to another instance of history repeating itself. When Horace Greeley was nominated for President it was a case of "Anybody to beat Grant," with the Democrats. Now it is "Anybody to beat the Republican nominee."

It would appear to be the part of a man who aspires to the Presidency to help formulate the platform and policy of one of the political parties. To sit on the fence and wait to see how the cat is going to jump, is not a very edifying spectacle.

It seemed fitting indeed that the aged father of Senator Hiram W. Johnson should have been the first Sacramento citizen to sigh his son's nominating petition.

The issue upon which candidates for Carmel trustee will go before the voters seems to have resolved itself as to their stand on the question of retaining the services of the Marshal at an increased compensation.

This Explains Itself

Carmel by the Sea, March 17
To the Hon. Board of Trustees,
Gentleman:

The undersigned, taxpayers and property holders of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, being entirely satisfied with the patrol and police protection afforded by the present Marshal, Mr. August Englund, are desirous of retaining him in that position.

We recognize that there is considerable difference in the purchasing power of money between the time of his appointment and the present time, and, to partly balance this difference, suggest that his salary be raised to $125 per month until such time as the cost of living is considerably reduced, he to continue to furnish his horse, uniform and star.

This petition has already been numerously signed in various places in town, and additional names may be added at the Pine Cone office. Non-resident property owners should send authorization to have their names signed.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

THE GREAT ORGAN OF THE MORMONS.

MUSIC and song long have played a prominent part in the expression of religion. The Latter-Day Saints are no exception to the rule. President Brigham Young believed it impossible to preach the gospel without good music.

In the early sixties plans were laid for the building of a suitable organ for their great tabernacle in Salt Lake City. The forests of the state were searched for the most satisfactory woods. Proper tools had to be devised and made. Glue had to be obtained. There were no railroads in Utah in those days. The problem was not an easy one. It developed that the best wood grew three hundred miles or more south of the city. It was hauled the entire distance, over rough roads and through the wilderness, by ox teams. Glue was made by boiling strips of cow hide over firepots. About one hundred men were employed. Some of the immense pipes of the great instrument were 32 feet long. But music was what they wanted and have it they did. The organ is said to be the sweetest-toned and the largest save one, in the world.

The original organ has been re-built and enlarged until it now has seven divisions, the main organ being 60 feet wide, 26 feet deep and 55 feet high, having over 7,000 pipes. The mechanism is electrically driven, nearly two thousand magnets being employed in the control of the vast tonal resources of the instrument.

It hasn't a rival in America. It's music is beyond description. You must hear it for yourself.

Getting Warm

There are three head pieces in the Carmel municipal ring now — two Stetsons and an Easter bonnet. Since our last issue, announcing the candidacies of Messrs. Reardon and Bechdolt for City Trustee, Mrs. Grace MacGowan Cooke, well known author, has filed nomination papers. Thus we have three candidates for two offices.

It begins to look as if Miss Saidee Van Brower for Clerk, and Louis S. Slevin for Treasurer, are to run unopposed, though any citizen desiring to contest has until the 23rd of this month to file nomination papers.

Registration for the municipal election closed last Friday, with about three hundred citizens eligible to cast ballots.

For the Presidential Primary on May 3 registration is still open, the last day being April 3. The books will then be closed for one month, after which names will be listed for the August Primary and November General Election.

Quite a number of Carmel Valley, Coast and Pebble Beach citizens have yet to register.

Near East Relief

Ten thousand little victims of Turkish brutality are to be foster-mothered by the big hearted women of Connecticut as the result of appeals by Near East Relief, the former Committee for Armenian and Syrian [illegible] Madison avenue, New York city. The women at a meeting voted to "adopt" that number as their share of the 250,000 homeless and starving boys and girls orphaned in the massacres and deportations.

Three hundred representatives of women's organizations attended the meeting at Hartford, at which Governor Marcus H. Holcomb presided and pleaded the cause of the stricken peoples. Another speaker was Henry Morgenthau, former U. S. Ambassador to Turkey.

Assurances that the example of these noble hearted Connecticut women will be followed by similar organizations in all the other states have been received at the headquarters of the Near East Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York
